

Polish America Engineers Association and Polish American Chamber of Commerce

Night at Chopin Theatre

“Death & Harry Houdini”

Thursday, April 12th
8:00 pm

The performance has received great reviews and the original run sold out completely in 5 days. Twenty seven more shows have just been added.

“Death and Harry Houdini” is a very elaborate yet intimate production with 120 seats (the critics have said it can go from Chopin directly to Las Vegas!)

Each member would pay a regular ticket price of $40. Chopin Theatre will provide a complimentary reception with cash bar. Complimentary parking is available one block east at Holy Trinity Church.

Critic's Choice - "Riveting...highly polished and visually thrilling show...magic of the very highest order...Watkins is the real technical deal" - Chris Jones, Chicago Tribune 1/31/12

Highly Recommended - "...soars on Dennis Watkins' brilliance as a genuine magician and fearless stuntman..ingeniously written and directed by Nathan Allen..quirky, high energy ensemble of actors, a fierce sense of play, the use of all sorts of hip visual and musical enhancements.." - Hedy Weiss, Chicago Suntimes 1/31/12

Critic's Pick "high energy and lack of artifice in a loose, buzzy blend of traditional storytelling, music and spectacle.. a thrilling ride" – Kris Vire, TimeOut Chicago 2/1/12

Tickets:

- (1) On line: <http://polonianightwithhoudini.eventbrite.com>
- (2) Call Mr. Michael Niedzinski at 773-415-1818

More information:
www.ChopinTheatre.com